The Few

The easy roads are crowded,
And the level roads are jammed;
The pleasant little rivers
With the drifting folds are crammed.
But off yonder where it's rocky,
Where you get a better view,
You will find the ranks are thinning
And the travelers are few.
Where the going's smooth and pleasant
You will always find the throng,
For the many, more's the pity,
Seem to like to drift along.
But the steeps that call for courage,
And the task that's hard to do,
In the end result in glory
For the never-wavering few.

Edgar A. Guest (1881-1959, poet and writer)
